MORMON SESSION BILLS VETOED

News Relating to the Northwest—Important Discovery by Electricians—The Case of Capt Beecher—Washington Notes

HOUSE

WASHINGTON May 24. Dunphy of Minnesota from the shipping committee reported back the shipping bill with recommendation that it pass. The bill as amended authorizes American citizens to purchase foreign built vessels not exceeding 3,000 tons burden, and to register the same for foreign trade. The recommendation of the committee was concurred in. The bill was then passed. Adjourned to Monday, when the unfinished business of the day will be the consideration of bills reported from committees.

By Hall of Missouri—To provide the income tax for the proceeds to be applied to the payment of pensions.

By Hall of Missouri—To provide that no money shall be paid out of the treasury on account of any claim against the United States not specifically appropriated by law, unless in pursuance of an estimate from the proper department.

By Hall of Missouri—To provide that the Secretary of the Treasury shall not pay any money

The Oregonian.

PORTLAND, TUESDAY, MAY 25, 1886.

THE WAGON ROAD FRAUDS.

Dolph's bill respecting wagon road land grants in this state is a remarkable measure. It directs the attorney-general to bring suit against the holders of lands granted some years back to road companies, and "to procure judgment" declaring their forfeiture. It will be easy enough to bring suit, but to procure judgment is a very different thing. The bill has passed the senate and it is expected to pass the house. Suits will be begun, but there is scarcely a possibility that they will come to anything. The lands were granted regularly to the state by the government, by the state they were transferred in the manner prescribed by law to the companies and by these companies to other companies or to settlers. Nobody doubts that titles were secured originally by the road companies through frauds; that the roads were really never built as required; but the work was accepted by the governor of the state and the transfer of the lands properly and regularly made. These lands are now in the hands of bona fide purchasers who are amply protected by every theory of the law. The probable effect of legal proceedings will be for the advantage of the present holders, by removing even the shadow of a doubt which now rests upon their titles.

The fault in the matter of these wagon road grants rests with the governor, who accepted roads which, in fact, were never made. Examiners sent out to view the work on the part of the state, reported that the roads had been built in accordance with the contract whereupon the governor made over the land grants to the companies. In a matter so important, the governor himself, or some person known by him to be trustworthy, should have examined the work before delivering the pay for it. But the thing is done and we fear there is no help for it. The bill now before congress is simply a measure to please those who, not understanding the facts in the case and their effect, persist in declaring that because the lands were never honestly earned they cannot be held.

If the lands were still in the hands of the original parties to the fraud there might be some hope of reclaiming them, or at least of securing construction of the roads, but they have largely passed into the hands of innocent purchasers, who hold title in all respects regular and who will probably be able to maintain their rights against all assaults. If, however, any of those who originally received the lands are still holding them, proceedings ought to be pushed against them.

SHIFTING VIEWS.

President Cleveland does not appear to please anybody very long; the stalwart republicans poke fun at him; the stalwart democrats are sulky when the president refuses to surrender to party the entire lump of the patronage; while the mugwumpbrays as mournfully as a hungry army mule when the president shuts his eyes periodically to sins of omission and commission in the administration of the civil service. When old man Cleveland rides the party jackass he is cursed by the mugwumps for making his poor boy, George William Curtis, walk; when George William rides the jackass smilingly, then the democratic party is indignant that the president of the party should walk while the mugwump boy rides; and when old man Cleveland and the mugwump boy Curtis both ride the jackass complacently, the rough and unterrified democracy rail at the president for his folly in making the party jackass carry a double load. Cleveland is damned when he has a policy and damned when he hasn't; one day he is charged with trying to play Jackson, and the next day he is denounced as becoming as placid and tasteless as Hayes. Meantio said, "I see Queen Mab hath been with you." So when Cleveland reappoints a republican, or resists all pressure to remove one, the democratic partisan whispers that the mugwump fairy bath been with the president, drilled and quilled him to do her bidding and relume the flickering torch of reform.

During the activity of congress "the Little Boy Blue" of politics blows but a faint, quavering note on his reform horn—it is hardly more pronounced than that of a piping tree toad—but, even as temperance and religion grow lively, when business grows dull and politics stagnant, so the voice of the civil service reform turtle will grow louder in the land when the adjournment of congress gives it the perfect silence of an Indian summer day in which to be heard. While President Cleveland was meeting the Edmunds assault on his constitutional prerogative by veto messages that cut the ground from under the feet of the republican Ulysses he is partly recognized the importance of the issue between Edmunds and the president, and he was loyally and gallantly supported. There were no civil service reform homilettes talked at this time by the president; he and his party had more pressing, if not more dignified work to do than that of wrangling over the esthetical view of the public service as painted into peacock splendor by Curtis and drearily expounded by that ungrammatical pedant and political twaddler, Dorman B. Eaton. But now that Edmunds no longer snatches at the president's scalp we expect the president to reassert his fealty to the civil service reform flag, including (we assume) a determination that Federal officers shall not participate in practical politics.

In Southern Oregon there has been a somewhat unwise attempt to "whip in" certain republicans who, for various reasons, cannot make up their minds to vote for Mr. Hermann. We say unwise, because the persons upon whom this discipline has been attempted have replied with much effect that Mr. Hermann himself has a record as a "bolter" that is not yet forgotten. That in 1871 he went on with an "independent" party which cast several thousand votes and gave all the state officers and the legislature to the democrats; and not satisfied with this, he again, in 1878, ran as an independent democratic candidate for the state senate in Douglas county, and the republicans of the county were compelled to vote handily then him. So that if any republican feels like making the name of Mr. Hermann off the ticket the latter cannot think it a deadly sin.

If Cornelius, in spite of his new "Tale of a Tub" and his new "Key of the Situation," should be defeated he could console himself with the reflection that the voters only refused to meet the village gossips nightly at the tavern and retail his yarns. He could remain on the same with a broad smile illuminating his face, induced by the possession of an entirely new and somewhat scary story. He narrated it with unusual unction and grace. Not a person in the circle imagined there was a dead silence. Looking over his audience with surprise and indignation pictured on his countenance the story teller arose, seized his hat and as he departed remarked, "Gentlemen; I wish I had that story back again." Cornelius may yet wish he had "his story back again."

The humane political theory and practice of the anti-Chinese party is like that of the man who, going through a wood, found a poor wretch, staked down to the ground, made a spread eagle of between four saplings, and howling for help, "Can't you get away?" "No." "Are you absolutely sure you can't get loose?" "Yes; I know I can't." "Well; if you can't possibly get away I'll proceed to give you a lashing myself."

A Suggestion.

Chicago Herald (Dem.).

A bill appropriating $150,000 for the purpose of studying the effects of alcoholic drinks on the human system has passed both houses of congress and now awaits the approval of the president. If the men to be experimented on are selected as a reward for party service, it may be that the democrats will get considerable satisfaction out of this measure.

Rescued from Death.

William J. Conghlin, of Somerville, Mass., says: In the fall of 1876 I was taken with BLEEDING OF LUNGS followed by a severe cough. I lost my appetite and flesh, and was confined to my bed. In 1877 I was admitted to the Hospital. The doctors said I had a hole in my lung as big as a half dollar. At one time a report went around that I was dead. I gave up hope, but a friend told me of DR. WILLIAM HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. I got a bottle, when, to my surprise, I commenced to feel better, and to-day I feel better than for three years past.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST.

ALBANY.

The body of George Warren Graman of the Isabel, who was drowned in the Willamette on Wednesday evening, has not been recovered.

MEDFORD.

Jud Cornish and Miss Clara Fordyce, a couple well known in this vicinity, were united in matrimony recently.

The democrats have nominated C. H. Barkdull for justice of the peace and J. K. Darnielle for constable. The republicans have named Arthur Wilson and Isaac Woolf for the same positions.

LAKE COUNTY.

"Doc." Luelling's residence in Paisley was burned to the ground recently.

The Lakeview merchants have been out of kerosene the past few weeks, and candles are in demand.

W. D. Arnett, one of the county commissioners, has sold his ranch in Summer lake to the Fosters. He claims the range is too limited to run horses.

A number of Paisleyites will start this week for Silver creek to make settlements, while others will extend their journey to Harney valley. Among them are J. Bunyard and family, Miles Ada Withers, J. Hannon and C. E. Randall.

CORVALLIS.

The graduating class this year of the Corvallis Agricultural college consists of Misses Frances Hardis, Liana Newton and Miss Minnie McFarland; Messrs. C. D. Thompson, H. Kellenbergs, R. F. Collins, H. L. Holgate, O. W. Robbins and B. J. Wilson. C. D. Thompson and H. Kellenberg will receive the degree of A. B.; the remainder will receive degree B. S.

The Indian war veterans of Benton county have organized and elected the following officers to serve one year: D. Carlile, captain; John Moore, 1st lieutenant; Norm Lily, 2d lieutenant; E. Marple, orderly sergeant; A. Emrick, commissary sergeant; I. Kelsey, Carlile, Marple and Archibald Johnson were chosen to attend the grand encampment at Oregon City, June 15, 1886.

ASHLAND.

The delinquent tax list will foot up some $6000.

Holmes Bros. have sold their farm on Rogue river to Mr. Furman for $1800.

The Siskiyou toll road, from Ruch over the summit, is in excellent condition.

In the case of Ella e Becker vs. A. W. Becker, a decree of divorce was granted by the circuit court last week.

No ice was put up in Jackson county last winter, and the luxury will have to be imported from the Portland factory.

County Treasurer Fisher has called in for redemption a few more county warrants, those protested up to July 8, 1881. About six years' interest is due upon them.

ARLINGTON.

Gov. Moody's new brick warehouse is fully completed and the business has been transferred from the old place that has done duty so long to the new and spacious quarters.

Nine car loads of merchandise were sidetracked here Monday last, consigned to our merchants. This is a good showing for a place of the size of Arlington, and is an index of the amount of business done.

No less than four resident wool buyers make their headquarters in Arlington, and competition among them is quite active, which keeps the price of wool up to the highest point the eastern market will stand.

The citizens of this place have subscribed $2125 to a "court house fund" to be donated to the county in the event that the people locate the county seat at this point. This amount will probably be increased to $3000.

While riding after horses in the Fossil country, week before last, John Beach's horse fell with him, throwing him to the ground and cutting quite a gash over his right eye and severely bruising his head and shoulders.

M. V. Harrison's little boy, Dale, met with quite a serious accident Wednesday evening last, that will probably leave him many through life. He was sitting in a boy's express wagon, in the store, and in some manner lost his balance, falling to the floor and striking his head against the edge of the platform on which the stoves are set for display, with result to cut a gash an inch long, and to the bone, over his left eye.

GRANT'S PASS.

Mrs. James R. White, of Sucker creek, died recently of typhoid fever.

The materials for the Rogue river bridge are being hauled to the site thereof. Work will commence in a few weeks.

Grant's Pass is to have a brewery. Mr. Fred Grob, of Jacksonville, is one of the parties interested, and has been engaged this week in digging the cellar.

Dr. Sullivan died at Kerbyville a few days ago, and is supposed to have died from taking poisonous drugs, with suicidal intent. He is supposed to have been insane.

Grant's Pass will soon have a money-order office, which will be of great convenience to the people of this county. The necessary blanks have already been filled out.

C. R. Shaw, of Mountain Horn, Idaho, agent for Salisbury, Bailey & Co., who have contracted to carry daily mails between Grant's Pass and Crescent City for less than $600 per year, was here last week. He found nobody willing to take the job of their hands.

The dedication of the Odd Fellows' hall at Kerbyville was one of the harmonious affairs which has taken place in Josephine county in a long time. The ceremonies passed off finely, the following gentlemen officiating: Charles Hughes, acting grand master; S. W. Forbes, noble grand; Rev. W. G. Simpson, grand chaplain; Charles K. Chanslor, first herald; Thomas F. Flood, second herald; W. J. Wimer, third herald. The oration was delivered by Rev. W. G. Simpson and was excellent.

JACKSONVILLE.

Jacksonville is enjoying the luxury of a street sprinkler this summer.

Vin Cook, of Portland, is paying the Sterling spheres a visit. He will remain only a few days.

A new postoffice has been established near Fish Lake, with C. C. Ragsdale as postmaster. It is called Tolo.

J. N. Barber, of Williams creek, Josephine county, has been adjudged insane by the county court last week.

The removal of the postoffice from Willow Springs will prove a great inconvenience to many persons in that section, and should be reestablished.

After a lingering illness of several weeks, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prosountain, of Poole's creek, aged about 20 years, died at the county in this place on Wednesday.

Milton Wagner, an employe in the sawmill at Glendale, Douglas county, ran his hand against a circular saw a few days since, it cutting off one of the fingers of his left hand.

Wm. F. Linville, of Table Rock precinct, had his leg broken on the Green Springs mountain one day last week, while returning from a Klamath county with his four-horse team, another team ran over him.

Edward D. McNabb, aged 11, was drowned the other day, while bathing in a deep hole in Bilz gulch, near town. He could not swim and ventured beyond his depth, drowning before the eyes of a still younger companion, who was powerless to help him.

KLAMATH COUNTY.

A new residence for the Indian agent at the Klamath reservation will be built during the summer.

Baldwin & Forbes, of Linkville, are building a large warehouse to meet the demand of their growing trade.

Some land near Linkville that was bought of the state a year ago at $1 25 per acre, is now in demand at $5 an acre.

A. A. Fink arrived in Sprague river valley with a band of fine young horses from Douglas county, a short time since.

Immigrants from all parts of the world are arriving in Klamath county, and quite a number of them will locate in Langell valley.

Jerome Knox, who was nominated for joint representative, has declined, and the republicans are casting about for another candidate.

Tommy Moore, the young Indian confined in the county jail for stealing from Haines, Martin & Co.'s store, has got away from Sheriff Putnam again, having succeeded in prying the lock off the safe and escaping through the hole he burned in the floor near the place.

Linkville Star: Messrs. Hutching and Dunn, of Yamhill, arrived in Linkville with their families Monday on their way to their new homes, recently located in Alkali valley, this county. The gentlemen were out here last fall securing locations, and will now permanently settle here.

A Langell valley correspondent writes: "The young wild cat recently captured by Henry Vinson is doing well. It is now at the postoffice under the maternal care of a tame Tal by, who, having lost her own offspring, on hearing the little orphan's cry, picked it up and carried it off to her bed, and seems to think as much of it as if it were her own."

COOS BAY.

Capt. Joe Fox reports that he has heard from a party which has returned from an exploring expedition into the country lying between the Ten-mile lake and the head of Coos river. The country is described as valuable for farming purposes and is said to consist of a large body of land which can be easily cleared and reduced to cultivation.

Quite a number of cattle have died on Ten-mile this spring, poisoned by larkspur. William Bowron lost fifteen head.

The steamer Coos Bay will take on a new coat of paint and otherwise embellish herself before going down to San Francisco.

Roy, the son of Capt. Bruce, fell down an embankment on Monday last, and fractured his right arm near the elbow joint.

Billy Powers, on Ten-mile, in the vicinity of North lake, killed a large panther on Saturday last which measured seven feet nine inches.

John Stevenson was hurt in the Henryville mine on Sunday night, by a piece of falling rock which struck him on the calf of his right leg and made an ugly gash and a severe bruise.

It has been predicted by the croakers that the bar would shoal up when the northwest wind began to blow. About twenty-two feet of water is now reported and the general condition better than ever before.

Fever and Ague.

C. Vreeland, Harkensack, N. J., Feb. 28, 1885, writes that he has been troubled with fever and ague for over two years. Quinine would not cure him, though taken in very large doses. By taking five Brandreth's Pills a night for two weeks he was restored to perfect health.

DIED

In this city, May 1, at his late residence, 175 Montgomery street, George M. Williams, colored. Deceased was born in Baton Rouge in the year 1836.

Funeral services from Ball st. church, Wednesday, at 2:30 p.m. sharp, under the auspices of the Grand United order of Odd Fellows. The remains will be buried in Salem, and will be taken up on the 3 o'clock train.

Ben Ali's Hair Grower.

All who are BALD, all who are becoming BALD, all who do not want to be BALD and who are troubled with DANDRUFF, or ITCHING of the scalp, should use Benton's Hair Grower. Eighty Per Cent. of those using it have grown hair. It never fails to stop the hair from falling. Through sickness and fevers the hair sometimes falls off in a short time, and although the person may have remained bald for years, if you use Benton's Hair Grower according to directions you are sure of a growth of hair. In hundreds of cases we have produced a good growth of hair on those who have been bald and glazed for years, we have fully substantiated the following facts:

We grow hair in 80 cases out of 100 no matter how long bald.

Unlike other preparations, it contains no sugar of lead or vegetable or mineral poisons.

It is a specific for falling hair, dandruff, and itching of the scalp.

The Hair Grower is a hair food, and its composition is almost exactly like the oil which supplies hair with its vitality.

Price, single strength, $1. If your druggists have not got it we will send it prepaid on receipt of price.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE VIEW OF O. R. & N. AUTHORITIES.—Amount that is said that the Northern Pacific is trying to get control of the Oregon & Transcontinental the following from the Boston Herald of the 15th will be read with interest: Oregon & Transcontinental rose from 47½ to 49¾ on buying supposed to relate to the annual meeting to occur June 21. What interest for control is to be this year has not transpired. Mr. Dresden lives who does the voting for the "outs" in the last two years, and has been in Boston this week. It is surmised that he took after his O. & T. fences. If the battle is fought over again this year, the usual claim that the management may be looked for in the way, although in reality it is the stock who, when ground there is for criticism. The O. & T. monthly runs as follows: Gross earnings under the management of President Smith. The entire amount of debt averages to bear not over 5 per cent. interest, and a part of it is carried at less than 3 per cent., which is a great saving for the company. This does call for the payment of interest money per year on the entire issue of over $800,000 on the Oregon Railway & Navigation stock owned by the company, leaving a surplus of $500,000 applicable to the reduction of the debt.

THE WATER PROSPECTS.—At 8 o'clock yesterday morning Snake river at Riparia was 11 feet 7 inches above low water, a fall of 6 inches in two days. At Celilo the Columbia was 15 feet above a mean tide zero in forty-eight hours. At 5 o'clock the river had fallen two inches. Above the Dalles the river has been about at a stand for two days. This indicates that the Cascades and John Day's rivers are swollen, the Deschutes, Umatilla and Yakima are low, but that speed need not be slackened in making farming. Lew J. R. Thompson organized a Presbyterian church on Sunday last in Lincoln creek hall. Chehalis county. Rev. W. F. Day has used several adult persons and organized two good men as ruling elders.

The take of salmon continues to be small. Yesterday Mr. Hooper of Lewis river, sent up only seventeen salmon. The entire catch of five boats the night before. Early in the season five boats averaged ten to fifteen fish nightly.

The roof of Wendler's mill took fire again yesterday from sparks from the smoke stack and owing to the efficient preparations for extinguishing fires it was put out without damage. The roof is being covered with fireproof paint.

The Sunday school of Columbia chapel will have a picnic near the mouth of the Sandy. We Tuesday, May 25. Parties from the city cannot have a more enjoyable time than a drive to this long existing stream. Refreshments will be furnished on the grounds.

For the past two days passengers traveling up and down the Columbia river have noticed that the transfer boat Tacoma has her flags at half mast. This is owing to the fact that Edward Hunt, who runs a switch engine at Kalama, died Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Frank E. Raymond and his young son Charles H. Raymond, left for San Francisco by the Oregon Short Line. Mr. Raymond goes to Australia from San Francisco by next steamer to be a three months' engagement with the colonies with Kelly & Leonard's circus.

George M. Williams, a colored man who for a number of years past has performed the duties of janitor in the building at the northwest corner of First and Morrison streets, died yesterday. Williams was an old pioneer, and a few of the oldest residents will remember him as employed about the State house at Salem.

Saturday night at Astoria Frank Silvernail and Harry Sullivan had a free fight in Reed's saloon. They began with a square stand up scrap and from that merged into a rough and tumble contest. The mill is said to have lasted about twenty minutes and resulted in Sullivan coming out with an enlarged head.

Ah Yune, a Chinaman, was arrested yesterday by policeman Cornelius on a charge of cruelty to animals. This consisted in his exposing a lot of fish of a sucker variety for sale at his stand on Second street, between Ankeny and Morrison. The fish were dried and were laid out in a heap and shelf and left to gasp and die.

The finest opportunity yet to buy furniture will be offered Friday, when Gilman & Co. will sell at auction carpets and out also in Dr. Jones' block, No. 7 Fourth street, corner Oak. This will be sold at auction also in the Dekum Brothers' building. The house will be open for inspection from 10 o'clock to 12 on Tuesday, the day before attending, only, will do well to walk this way.

A drayman drove over a giant powder cap on First street yesterday on Ankeny and Johnson's gun stone causing a loud report which startled a crowd in short order. There were some six pounds of these caps were stolen in the early part of this month, and it is supposed that they were thrown at this point a few days since which were probably dropped from some truck. The dropping of such dangerous explosives in the streets is careless to say the least.

Deputy Sheriff Granger left on this morning's train for Portland with Frank Squires, upon which charge he was convicted last fall for the murder of Dell Harlan, which conviction was reversed by the granting of a new trial. Squires will be taken to the penitentiary to serve out the remainder of his sentence. Now that everything is quiet more attention will be paid to the safe keeping of prisoners.—Albany Democrat, May 22.

Hon. Fred Crandall who has been on the sick list for the past week, is able to be out again. Mr. Crandall's illness was caused by a severe attack of cholera morbus, and for a time his life was despaired of. He is now convalescent.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the Secretary's office for the Portland Rowing Club and Boat House Association. The object of the club is to encourage boating and other athletic sports on the Willamette river. The capital stock is $5000, divided into shares of $10 each. The incorporators are Thomas Lamb, Frank Dekum, Jr., and Frank Dekum.

THE QUEEN'S JUBILEE.—Everything is ready for the jubilee on the 24th inst., and the city will be gay. Every one who can should attend. Those who have been doing so will be pleased to do so again. Those who have not been should not miss the opportunity. Let us have a grand jubilee.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

The Knights of Labor Convention at Cleveland.

A BRITISH SCHOONER SEIZED

Notes from Pacific Coast Points—The Hostiles Surrounded by Troops—A Dispatch from Gen Miles—Etc.

CLEVELAND May 24—Every train entering the city to-day bore among its passengers representatives of workingmen They came singly and in pairs and during the afternoon the corridors of the Forest City House presented a busy appearance. The headquarters of the Knights of Labor convention which is to convene to-morrow, are at this hotel and room No 44 occupied by General Master Workman Powderly, whose presence at which all the faithful worship. Mr Powderly was kept busy all day welcoming delegates and answering questions

The number of delegates to the convention is 125 and they are almost all present. Delegates are reported from the District of Columbia New York New Jersey Pennsylvania Massachusetts Missouri New Mexico Nebraska, Minnesota Colorado, Indiana Michigan, West Virginia Montana and Illinois, with more to be heard from

Among prominent labor agitators who are present, but not delegates are John Martin of Pittsburg president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers Peter Patrick of Cincinnati president of the International Moulders Union Mr Compere of New York president of the International Cigar Makers Union, John Kirschner of Philadelphia fourth vice-president of the International Cigar Makers Union and David P Boyer of Columbus Ohio or editor of the International Typographical Union

WORK MAPPED OUT

The executive board of the order consists of General Master T V Powderly of Pennsylvania General Secretary Treasurer Turner of New York Thomas B Larry of Michigan W H Bailey of Ohio and John W Hays of Minnesota These officers and Terry are to-day all more or less busy and they say that the executive board held a secret conference in Mr Powderly room they agreed on the platform of work of business which is to be brought to the notice of the convention. The meeting is said to have been very harmonious and the opinion was expressed afterwards that the present convention would do more to settle the case of labor and redound more to the glory of the Knights than any previous one.

A reference between the executive committee and the trade unions committee of six was held this afternoon and the United Mine Workers history to be considered and resolutions were drawn up which will be presented to the convention for adoption A perfect understanding was agreed to and both bodies will work in the Knights of Labor are pleased over the result

Delegates to the convention are reticent as to the work to be done and assert that the only one all the work to be attempted. It is said however that the question raised by the Philadelphia convention will be discussed as it will the color line question and it is also said that broken its enthusiastic assertion that there was not for to do there be any difficulty between the Knights and the trades unions as they are both working to attain the same ends the elevation and amelioration of labor

AN OPEN SYSTEM

A great many members who belong to trades unions are loud in their denunciation of the system allowing men who belong to trades unions to have been expelled from trades unions to be received into the ranks and they are anxious to have the evil corrected They hope to see this question settled definitely and will make strenuous endeavors to attain that end David P Boyer of Columbus general organizer of the international union is outspoken on this question

Notwithstanding the fact that there are a number of differences among individual members the utmost unanimity prevails as a whole and it is said that this will be the most important convention of the kind ever held

It is claimed by members that if the trades unions are worked into the Knights it will be a great saving and better for all classes of labor While the unionists are inclined to stick to their trade unions although they love and revere the Knights of Labor it is only a question of policy and both organizations are anxious to do all in their power for the benefit of workingmen So if the trades want to order strikes and control wages to suit themselves and do not want to be hampered by the Knights from all appearances the question, which is an important one will be settled at this meeting

DuBois and deputies, in a special car, will leave for Detroit May 26 with thirteen prisoners the first batch of polygamists sent out of the territory One hundred and forty five indictments were drawn for unlawful cohabitation at this term of court. All promised to obey the law in future, except one.

CALIFORNIA.

THE ENDS OF RING RULE.

SAN FRANCISCO May 24—An indictment secured to-day in Judge Murphy's court which is a good incrimination of how the sheriff's office which is nominally controlled by Sheriff Hopkins, but virtually by Boss Buckley, is conducted The murder case of the people vs Wilson was set for trial to-day in Murphy's court About a week ago subpenas were issued for a number of important witnesses. When the case was called to-day a majority of them were absent and investigation showed that the subpenas had not been served on them by deputy sheriffs who it is presumed, were too busy assisting to organize democratic clubs last week to pay any attention to their official duties. The court on this discovery of this state of affairs, grew angry, and ordered the bailiff to call Sheriff Hopkins. Another long wait, and then the bailiff returned to say that Sheriff Hopkins could not be found Then call the under sheriff ordered the judge but he too was not to be found and the dusky sheriff of the court now being, blocked and demurrer was forced and an order as follows was entered on the books of the court Case adjourned because the sheriff is off on failed to do its duty

MANY FAMILIES MADE HOMELESS BY FIRE

SAN FRANCISCO May 24—About 10 40 this evening fire was discovered in the 3d room of the fifth story of Kraken's Geist, 109 Bardman street between Sixth and Seventh The fire soon gained such headway that it was found necessary to turn in four alarms In order to confine the fire to the block bounded by Bardman Sixth and Seventh streets was destroyed by flame Half a block of two story frames have been also burned with the Columbia Theatre Loss on the theatre building about $60 000 insurance $30 000 Other losses approximate about $50 000 with little or no insurance
